SNAC

SUNDAY NIGHT AFTER CHURCH

SNAC is a hangout time, where on the 1st & 3rd Sunday of each month the youth take a trip to a local restaurant or stay on campus in the Gym or Youth House (7:30-8:45ish).

Wednesdays

Bible Study is a very important of the Christian Life; in fact, it is crucial. Through the year the youth have series of bible studies (book studies, life topics, etc). The remainder of the year is spent with the churchwide study.

Events

Throughout the year students participate in a number of events that are designed for Christian growth, life change, fellowship, worship, and fun.

Day Trips/Events

Swimming, hiking, biking, skiing & tubing, paintball, Carowinds, 4th of July party, Great Pumpkin Chase, aka – GPC, (a Halloween scavenger hunt/race), summer Weeknight Madness and more.

Weekend & Weeklong Trips/Events

Winter Conference—a weekend with Christian music and student preaching.
Invasion—a weekend, Discipleship based event where the youth break into age & gender groups in host-homes for Bible Study and then come together for group worship with a guest speaker & band.

Summer Camp—a weeklong camp that emphasizes worship & growth.
Summer Mission Trip—a weeklong time for youth to serve & impact others.

Groups & Ministry

In Motion For Christ

IMFC is an interpretive movement group that choreographs movements to powerful Christian music. This group practices on Sunday mornings.

Music & Drama Ministry

This a ministry designed for those with a talent or a growing interest in music and/or drama. These groups will be used in Sunday morning and evening services.

Youth Outreach

These activities include projects in our community and/or on our church grounds. Some projects also include fundraising, food distribution & providing clothes at Christmas. Mostly handled through The Guys and Acteens.
